

APR 06 2026

IN THE UTAH COURT OF APPEALS

NPEC, LLC, Appellee, v. GREGORY RYAN MILLER, Appellant.	VEXATIOUS LITIGANT ORDER Case No. 20251417-CA
--	--

Before Judges Christiansen Forster, Mortensen, and Oliver.

This matter is before the court on its own motion to declare Gregory Ryan Miller a vexatious litigant in accordance with rule 40A of the Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Having provided notice and an opportunity to respond, this court now declares Miller a vexatious litigant on the basis that another court has previously designated him as a vexatious litigant in a related matter. See Utah R. App. P. 40A(a)(2). Specifically, on July 9, 2015, the district court entered an order in this matter declaring Miller to be a vexatious litigant. In October 2021, the district court modified the order to include a requirement that Miller obtain counsel to file any further documents in the matter.¹

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Miller is designated a vexatious litigant and must obtain legal counsel before filing any future appeal or petition in the appellate courts.

Dated this 6 day of April, 2026.

FOR THE COURT:

Amy J. Oliver, Judge

¹. In addition, this court notes that Miller has filed numerous appeals that have attempted to re-litigate settled issues. Over the years, Miller has filed more than 30 petitions and appeals related to the same underlying case.