3RD DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

NPEC LLC A UTAH LIMITED LIAB,
Plaintiff,

vs.

GREGORY R MILLER
Defendant.

RULING

ORDER VEXATIOUS LITIGANT

Case No: 130905131

Judge: STONE, ANDREW H

Date: November 2, 2022

Defendant in this case has submitted a motion to vacate the vexatious litigant order applicable to him in this case. Because he has not retained counsel for filing this motion pursuant to that order, the filing is rejected and ordered returned to Mr. Miller.

This latest attempt to misuse the court process again illustrates the ongoing need for the order. Mr. Miller challenges the legality of the order, ignoring the fact that the order was specifically upheld and held to be in effect less than seven months ago by the Court of Appeals. He has repeatedly violated the order in the interim.

In his proposed motion, besides ignoring the mandate rule and the law of the case, Miller also bases his current motion on arguments that have been repeatedly rejected at this trial court level as well as at the appellate level. Some of these arguments have persisted, despite being unsuccessfully litigated, for what is now nearly eight years, despite multiple attempts to relitigate them at this level and on appeal. If Mr. Miller wants to make additional filings in this action, he needs to obtain counsel to advise him as to what arguments are acceptable. The Court will not further inflict the burden of Mr. Miller's misunderstanding of the law on the parties or the court. Future filings in violation of the Vexatious Litigant Order of 2021, as affirmed by the Utah Court of Appeals, will be returned to Mr. Miller.

Mr. Miller has also placed a burden on Court staff, emailing various judicial assistants with various and numerous requests. Going forward, Mr. Miller will be limited to one email per week to court staff. Staff will be instructed to delete any emails in excess of that
