2. The court finds

For stalking or attempted stalking, the defendant has:

- been convicted,
- agreed to a plea in abeyance, or
- entered a guilty plea, a guilty and mentally ill plea, or a plea of no contest.

The protected person is:

- ☐ an intimate partner of the defendant. The defendant represents a credible threat to the physical safety of the protected person. (The defendant and the protected person are or were married, are the parents of a shared child, cohabitate or have cohabited together). (18 U.S.C. Sec. 921 (a)(32)).
- ☐ the child of an intimate partner of the defendant. The defendant represents a credible threat to the physical safety of the protected person.
- ☐ not an intimate partner of the defendant, but is a cohabitant under Utah law.
- ☒ not an intimate partner or cohabitant, but is a victim of stalking or attempted stalking.

The court orders:

You, the defendant, must obey all orders marked below.

3. ☒ No stalking

You must not stalk the protected person. This means that you must not:

- stalk the protected person directly, indirectly or through another person; and
- do any of the following in a way that would cause a reasonable person to feel emotional distress, fear for their safety, or fear for the safety of another person:
 - follow, monitor, observe, photograph, surveil, or threaten the protected person by any action, method, device, or means;
 - approach or confront the protected person;
 - appear at the protected person's workplace or school;
 - appear at the protected person's residence, enter the protected person's home or property, or interfere with a protected person's property;
 - send material by any means to the protected person or for the purpose of obtaining or distributing information about or communicating with the protected person to a family or household member, employer, coworker, friend, or associate of the protected person;
 - communicate with or contact the protected person or the protected person's family, household, employer, employees, coworkers, friends, neighbors, or associates of the person;
 - place an object on or deliver an object to property owned, leased, or occupied by a person, or to the person's place of employment with the intent that the object be delivered to the person; or
 - use a computer, the internet, text messaging, or any other electronic means to do any of the above.

Notice: You will not violate the stalking injunction by:

- attending a hearing with the protected person. But you must be a party to the case or a required witness. And you must tell the bailiff that you are a respondent to an injunction when you arrive.
- serving documents you file in court on the protected person. Service may not be in-person under any circumstances, but must otherwise be according to the Rules of Civil Procedure. It must also be civil and not threatening.

4. [X] No contact or limited contact

[X] You must not to contact the protected person, directly or indirectly, in a way that is likely to cause annoyance or alarm. You must not contact others about the protected person. You must not contact the protected person or others about the protected person through email, text, social media, social media messaging or posts, mail, or other methods of contact. ("Others" includes the protected person's employers, employees, coworkers, friends, associates, any other person.)

☐ You and the protected person share custody of one or more minor children. You must only contact the protected person to arrange visits with the children by the methods checked below. Any approved communication must not cause annoyance or alarm to the protected person.

☐ Phone

☐ Text

☐ Email

☐ Third party person (name):

☐ Other:

5. ☒ Stay away

Warning to defendant: You must not go to the residence or premises of the protected person or other protected places without an officer. Law enforcement can remove you or keep you away from the places frequented by the protected person if needed.

You must stay away from:

☒ The protected person's residence;

☒ The protected person's school;

☒ The protected person's workplace;

☐ These other places frequented by the protected person and any designated family members:

☒ You must stay away from the protected person if you encounter them at any other location not listed in this order. You must not communicate or have contact with the protected person and must leave. If leaving is not an option (such as at your place of employment or at a required court hearing), you must move as far away as possible to avoid any confrontation.

6. ☐ Child Custody and Parent time Orders

☐ The court declines to address custody and parent time provisions in this order. A copy of this order must be filed in any court action where these provisions are being considered.

☐ Custody of the minor children listed below are given to:

☐ You will have no parent-time because:

7. ☒ Other orders – Stay 100 feet away from all protected parties.

Notices to defendant:

This order is permanent and does not expire.

Penalties for violating this order (Utah Code 78B-7-903(1))

If you do not obey this order, you can be arrested and charged with a new offense. The new offense would be Violation of a Permanent Criminal Stalking Injunction, which is a third degree felony.

You may become subject to federal law because this criminal stalking injunction was issued against you. This would mean that it would be a crime for you to possess, transport, ship or receive any firearm or ammunition, including a hunting weapon.

"The defendant was afforded both notice and opportunity to be heard in the hearing that gave rise to this order. Pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act of 1994, P.L. 103-322, 108 Stat. 1796, 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2265, this order is valid in all the United States, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and United States territories. This order complies with the Uniform Interstate Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act." (Utah Code 78B-7-105.5(4)).

Notice to defendant and protected person:

Only the court has the authority to change or dismiss this order. Only the protected party can file a request to ask the court to change or dismiss this order.

Protective Order Acknowledgment of Firearm Restriction

Case Number 151400888

Now that I have been served with this criminal protective order, I understand that:

- I am a restricted person;
- as a restricted person, I cannot purchase, transfer, possess, or own a firearm (as defined by federal and state law) or ammunition;
- I must give up all the firearms and ammunition I possess and I will not be able to possess any firearms or ammunition unless the court restores my right in an order in the future;
- there will be additional criminal charges and penalties if I violate this restriction. Under state law this can include charges for a third degree felony: 0-5 years in prison, up to $5,000 +90% surcharge;
- there can be additional penalties under federal law if I violate this restriction; and
- I may be eligible for an affirmative defense to a state-law prosecution for possession of a firearm under Utah Code 76-10-503 if within 10 days of becoming a restricted person I lawfully transfer my firearms to a person who can legally possess firearms and does not live with me.

I was told all of the above by the court, the prosecuting attorney, my attorney, or a peace officer who served me the criminal protective order.

I am signing this acknowledgment in front of the court or a peace officer.

I declare under criminal penalty under the law of Utah that everything stated in this document is true.
